

Attorney Track

March 1, 2010

Time	Class	Presenter
10 am - Noon	Meth Awareness &amp; Prevention	Robyn Kelley, Bernalillo County Extension Office            Ms. Kelley has been a County Extension and Urban 4-H Agent since September of 2008. She holds a M.Ed. from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. She is currently working on her Ph.D. in Youth Development.
1-2 pm	Professionalism	   Judge Sandra Price, 11th, Div 1, District Judge, Farmington, NM            Judge Price began working as a prosecuting attorney with the District Attorney's Office for the Eleventh Judicial District in 1991. She worked for the District Attorney's Office for over 13 years. In 1997, Price was elected District Attorney and she served one term. On November 2, 2004, Sandra Price was elected District Judge for the Eleventh Judicial District. She was the first woman elected in San Juan County.
2-3 pm	Ethics on the Edge - Real World Conflicts	Michael Cox, 2nd Judicial District Attorney's Office, Albuquerque, NM            Michael Cox has done criminal prosecution work since graduating from UNM Law School in 1981. Mr. Cox spent many years prosecuting violent crimes for the 2nd Judicial District. He also directed the Special Prosecutions/Investigation Division for the Attorney General's Office and he spent 2 years prosecuting Indian Country crimes with the US Attorney's Office. Mr. Cox has developed legal education for prosecutors for many years. Mr. Cox serves as an adjunct professor of law at UNM. Michael Cox's contribution to prosecution in the State of New Mexico has been invaluable.
3 - 3:15 pm	Break

3:15 - 5 pm	Wrongful Conviction of Forensic Science	 John M. Collins, BS, MA, SPHR  John Collins has worked in the profession of forensic science since 1992, which includes his tenure as the director of a major Midwestern crime laboratory where he has served since 1998. He is a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources, and consults periodically with crime laboratories seeking to improve their management systems. He was elected to the board of directors of the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors in 2005 and served a three-year term. Collins was the creator and first editor of the Crime Lab Minute, the official weekly publication of ASCLD, and he also served as the editor for the AFTE Journal, the official quarterly publication of the Association of Firearm &amp; Toolmark Examiners. He is a trained accreditation inspector and has inspected several laboratories throughout the United States and overseas. Collins regularly lectures at colleges and universities in the Midwest.
5 - 5:15 pm	Offender Watch	Mark Wilson, Watch Systems, Covington, LA

March 2, 2010

Time	Class	Presenter
8:15 - 10:15 am	Human Trafficking, International Extraditions and Foreign Prosecutions with Mexico	 Maria Sanchez-Gagne, Attorney General's Office  Ms. Sanchez-Gagne is an Assistant Attorney General at the Attorney General's Office. She is Director of the newly created Border Violence Division which was formed to develop and maintain liaison on mutual law enforcement matters between Mexico and New Mexico and to coordinate between prosecutors and law enforcement agencies in New Mexico with similar entities in the Republic of Mexico. Ms. Sanchez-Gagne obtained her law degree from the University of Denver School of Law.
10:15 - 10:30 am	Break

10:30 am - Noon	“Federal Firearms Prosecution: Parallel Prosecutions, Case Referrals, and Setting Up Defendants for the Big Federal Vacation.”	Jake Wishard, Assistant United States Attorney Mr. Wishard earned his JD from the University of New Mexico in 2003. From 2004 to 2009, he prosecuted numerous drug, violent and other offenses for the State of New Mexico. He clerked on a large capital RICO case for the United States Attorney’s Office. Mr. Wishard serves as an Assistant United States Attorney where he prosecutes firearm cases in the Las Cruces Branch Office. Ron Jennings, United States Attorney’s Office Mr. Jennings earned his JD from the University of Arizona in 1969. For 3 years, he served as a special agent with the FBI and then worked 33 years for the Department of Justice serving in many capacities from line prosecutor to US Attorney. He is currently the Branch Chief for the Las Cruces US Attorney’s Office. Brent Quin, Resident Agent in Charge Mr. Quin earned his BS from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1995. In 1996, Special Agent Quin began his law enforcement career with the US Border Patrol in Laredo, TX. In 2000, he began working with ATF in Houston, TX. In 2007, Special Agent Quin was promoted to Resident Agent in Charge at the Las Cruces Field Office.
Noon - 2:00 pm	Training Luncheon- Professionalism Key Note Instructor\Roll out of Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification Program	  Christopher Chiles, President, National District Attorneys’ Association Mr. Chiles obtained his JD from West Virginia University College of Law in 1980. Since then, he has been involved in prosecution efforts for 27 years, currently serving as the Elected Cabell County Prosecuting Attorney. Mr. Chiles is an adjunct professor at Marshall University and he teaches prosecution courses at the National Advocacy Center. Mr. Chiles was elected President of the National

		District Attorneys' Association in 2009.
2:15 - 3:30 p.m.	Secure Portable Media Usage	 Srinivas Mukkamala, Ph.D. Dr. Mukkamala is the owner of Computational Analysis and Network Enterprise Solutions, LLC. He has 10 years experience as an information security researcher at New Mexico Tech and is a senior research scientist with ICASA. He earned his Ph.D. in Computer Science from New Mexico Tech in 2005.
3:30- 5:00 p.m.	No Private Matter: Domestic Violence	 Thecia Jenkins, Prevention &amp; Education Director, "The Bridge Over Troubled Waters, Inc.", Pasadena, TX Ms. Jenkins is the current HR/Prevention &amp; Education Director for the Bridge Over Troubled Waters, Inc. - an institute that provides safety, support and prevention services for domestic violence and sexual assault victims in Pasadena, Texas. She also owns Bold Profession Seminars &amp; Consulting. Ms. Jenkins holds a BS from Texas Women's University.

March 3, 2010

Time	Class	Presenter
8:00- 9:30 am	Organized Retail Crime	Mark Drebing, Deputy District Attorney, 2nd Judicial District Attorney's Office, Albuquerque, NM Mr. Drebing has over 20 years of prosecution experience with the 2nd DA's Office and 6 years of experience as legal counsel for the Albuquerque Police Dept. He has handled over 100 felony trials. He earned his JD at Boston

		College School of Law in 1988. Mr. Drebing was NMDAA's Prosecutor of the Year in 2000. Robin Hammer, Deputy District Attorney, 2nd Judicial, Albuquerque, NM  Ms. Hammer is a career prosecutor with over 16 years experience. She has prosecuted in the 11th, Div 1, 1st and 2nd District Attorneys' Offices. In 1995, the Prosecutor's Section of the State Bar named her "Prosecutor with the Most Legal Impact" for her successful death penalty prosecution in State v. Tim Allen. Although she has worked in many areas of prosecution, she currently heads up the Organized Crime and Public Corruption Division at the 2nd District Attorney's Office.
9:30- 9:45 am	Break
9:45 am - Noon	Legal Update	Margaret McLean, Attorney General's Office  Margaret McLean is an Assistant Attorney General in the Criminal Appeals Division. She is the current division director overseeing a staff of fifteen attorneys and two support staff. In addition to criminal appeals, Margaret provides counsel and advice to other divisions at the Attorney General's Office as well as other state agencies. Ms. McLean also assists with writs and legislative analyses. Her division also handles state habeas and federal habeas corpus proceedings. Finally, Ms. McLean is a member of the DNA Oversight Committee and the Rules of Appellate Procedure Committee. She earned her JD from Pepperdine University.
Noon - 1:30 pm	Lunch (on your own)
1:30 -4:30 p.m.	Internet Crimes Against Children	Charlyn Rees, Assistant United States Attorney  Ms. Rees is currently an Assistant United States Attorney in the Violent Crimes Division/Project Safe Childhood. She has served in this capacity since 2007. Prior to this, she was a Deputy District Attorney for Marion County in Salem,

		Oregon where she was on the Child Abuse/Sexual Assault Team. She earned her JD from Willamette University College of Law in Salem, Oregon.
--	--	--